

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF ALBERTA

USE OF PHOTOGRAPHS or VIDEO RECORDINGS OF JUDGES

1. No one may record the likeness of a judge using camera or video equipment, except the following persons:
 - a) Family members and friends of a judge, or their designates, attending the judge's swearing-in ceremony.
 - b) Family members and friends attending a law student's Bar Admission ceremony.
 - c) Judicial and Court Services staff.
2. Members of accredited media organizations may take a photograph or video recording of a judge at a ceremonial occasion on the following conditions:
 - i) The reporter obtains permission from the Chief Justice or the Associate Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench prior to the event.
 - ii) The media representative signs the Use of Photograph or Video Recording Undertaking promising to use the photo or video only with a published or broadcast report about the event at which the likeness was obtained, and in no other circumstance without permission of the Court.
 - iii) A procedure is in place at the location where the photo or video is stored to ensure the photo or video is not published or broadcast in any other circumstance.
 - iv) The media representative has obtained permission from the Chief Justice or the Associate Chief Justice to use a photo or video for another purpose.
