PART 1 – FACTS

In the appellant's factum, this is a statement of facts including, if desired, a concise introductory statement of the legal issues raised.

In the respondent's factum, this is a statement of the respondent's position on the facts as stated by the appellant, and any other facts considered relevant.

PART 2 – GROUNDS OF APPEAL

In the appellant's factum, this is a concise statement of the grounds for appeal.

In the respondent's factum, this is a statement of the respondent's position in regards to the stated grounds, and any other points that may properly be put in issue.

PART 3 – STANDARD OF REVIEW

In both the appellant's and respondent's factums, this is a statement on the relevant standard of review. Among other resources, see Hon. Roger P. Kerans & Kim W. Willey, Standards of Review Employed by Appellate Courts, 2nd ed. (Edmonton: Juriliber, 2006)

PART 4 – ARGUMENT

In both the appellant's and the respondent's factums, this is a discussion addressing the questions of law or fact raised by the appeal.

PART 5 – RELIEF SOUGHT

In both the appellant's and the respondent's factums, this is a statement of the relief sought, including any special direction with respect to costs.

Estimate of time required for the oral argument: Rule 14.32(4) provides that unless the panel otherwise permits, oral argument must not exceed 45 minutes for each separately represented party in the appeal, with any consolidated appeals to be treated as one appeal. minutes.

Table of Authorities

The Table of Authorities is a list of the legal authorities referred to in the factum. Each authority should be listed separately and include a hyperlink to a publicly accessible website, if available.

If a hyperlink is not available, a copy of the authority should be appended to the factum.

Books of Authorities are no longer filed.

Any neutral citation assigned to the authority by the court that decided it should be provided along with at least one print citation where available.
