

Notice to the Profession and Public
Practice Direction on Electronic Filing and Terms of Use

August 14, 2020

On June 30, 2020, the Court of Appeal announced that it will launch the public portal of its e-filing system called CAMS on August 31, 2020. The Notice can be accessed by visiting the Alberta Courts website at <https://albertacourts.ca> under “Court of Appeal” and “Publications”.

The Practice Direction on Electronic Filing will come into effect on August 31, 2020. The Practice Direction provides particulars on registration as a registered user, the submission, filing and formatting requirements of documents filed electronically and other matters related to electronic filing.

In addition, effective August 31, 2020, any use of CAMS will be subject to the Terms of Use for Registered Users of CAMS. All registered users must first read and agree to comply with such Terms.
