

Notice to the Profession and Public
Update: Restricted Access to Courthouses

April 28, 2022

Effective May 2, 2022, the restrictions on access to courthouses set out in the Alberta Courts' Notice to the Public and Legal Profession of March 26, 2020, will be lifted. Access to Alberta courthouses will no longer be restricted to the categories of individuals set out in that Notice.

All other COVID-19 measures currently in place, including the use of Plexiglas barriers, mandatory masking, courtroom capacity limits, physical distancing, and vaccination policies, will remain in effect until further notice.
