

Alberta Court of Justice
Edmonton Family & Youth Division
Practice Note 2.1: Child Protection Court Report Forms

Effective: May 1, 2025

1. This practice note applies to proceedings under the Child, Youth and Family Enhancement Act in Edmonton, Fort Saskatchewan, Leduc, Sherwood Park, St. Albert and Stony Plain. In addition, this practice note applies to Wetaskiwin effective July 1, 2025.
2. An affidavit and court report for an initial custody application shall be in Form 1.
3. An affidavit and court report for a supervision order or an extension of a supervision order shall be in Form 2.
4. An affidavit and court report for a temporary guardianship order or an extension of a temporary guardianship order shall be in Form 3.
5. An affidavit and court report for a permanent guardianship order shall be in Form 4.
6. A judge may
 - (a) refuse to admit a court report that is not in the prescribed form, or
 - (b) direct that anything in the court report may be redacted if
 - (i) it is superfluous or irrelevant, or
 - (ii) its prejudicial effect exceeds its probative value.
7. Nothing in this practice note affects the discretion of a judge to determine the admissibility of evidence.
8. This practice note replaces Practice Note 2 dated March 27, 2024.

Dated this 14th day of April, 2025

Aran Veylan
Assistant Chief Justice
Alberta Court of Justice
Edmonton Family & Youth Division