

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF ALBERTA NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION

CASE CONFERENCES - RULE 4.10

Rule 4.10 of the Alberta Rules of Court provides that a Case Conference may be held on the direction of the Court. The Court directs that a Case Conference be held prior to any matter being entered for trial, where one or more of the parties is a self represented litigant, in the following Judicial Centres or sitting points, namely: Drumheller, Fort McMurray, Grande Prairie, High Level, Hinton, Peace River, and St. Paul.

This requirement may be waived by the Order of a Justice of this Court.
